Sittig Inaugurates Various Federal Programs

With the revising of the scheduling system now in sight, John L. Sittig, superintendent, has been a very busy man around Brookfield High School. Since last year was his first year as superintendent in the school system, Mr. Sittig approached his position with zeal and eagerness. Revising and improving were the two main elements which were uppermost in his plans for the betterment of the Brookfield Schools. Along with his daily duties as superintendent, Mr. Sittig takes an active interest in the mental development of each student in the school system

JOHN L. SITTIG, Superintendent

July 10, 1968, marked the appointment of the new high school principal, Mr. Anthony J. Pinter. Fulfilling the job was no easy task for Mr. Pinter, but with previous experience as principal in his past, he has managed well. Mr. Pinter hails from Farrell High School where he taught math and was junior and senior high school principal for a number of years. No matter how busy he is, he has always found time to talk to various students about their problems

ANTHONY J. PINTER
Principal

Hyre, Pinter Assume New Positions

A new position has been added to the recently revamped administration. He is James Hyre, former head football coach and a very influential figure at BHS. His new duties include overall charge of attendance and the school insurance program. Minor disciplinary problems or that nasty word, "detention," are also capably handled by Mr. Hyre. These are only a few of the responsibilities with which Mr. Hyre must cope. When he was asked to summarize his duties, he replied, "Each day there are many incidents, all too numerous to mention, that make this job dynamic and enjoyable."

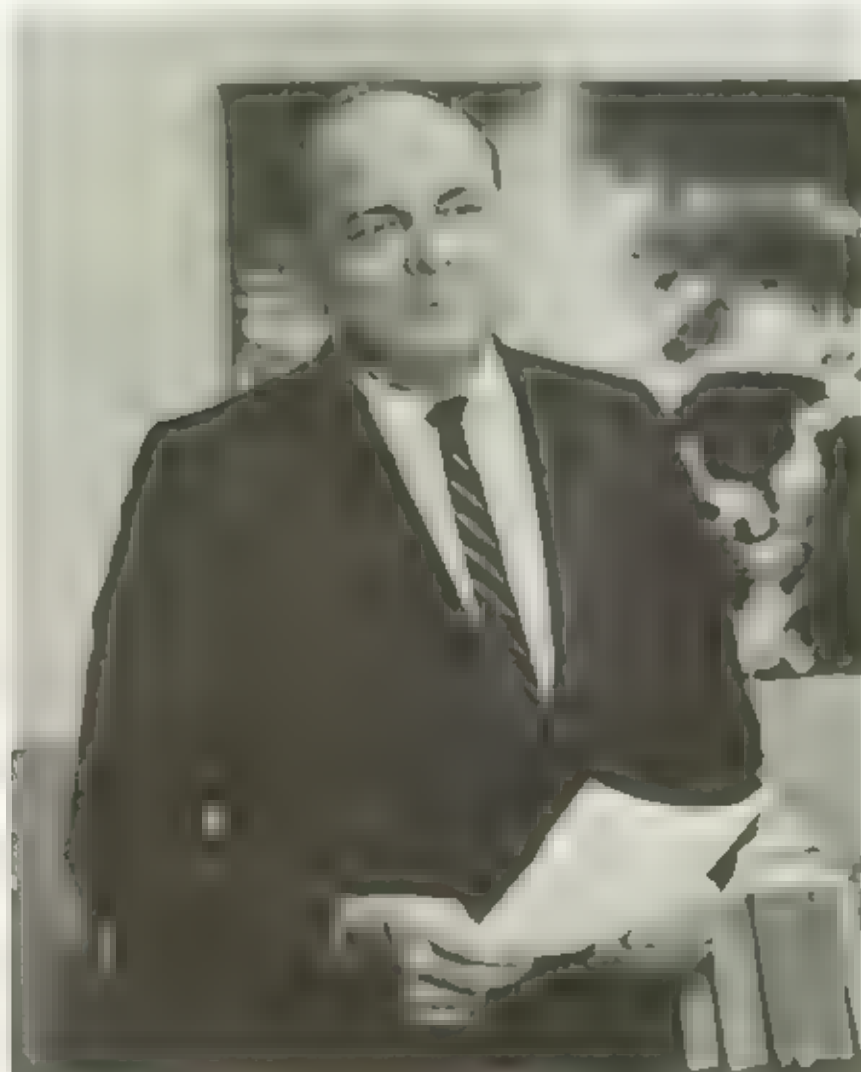

JAMES HYRE, Assistant Principal

Stefanovsky, White Guide Junior High

JOSEPH WHITE, Assistant Principal

FRANK STEFANOVSKY, Principal

The junior high school is the stepping stone to an adolescent's future. It helps develop a student both mentally and physically for high school and higher education. In order for a student to develop correctly, one must have a firm hand and strong leadership to guide him along this rough path. Frank Stefanovsky is just such a man. Even though being junior high school principal is a big responsibility, he enjoys his job thoroughly and does it to the best of his ability.

Aside from the average, run-of-the mill duties, including being in charge of discipline, which most assistant principals must fulfill, Joseph White also serves as coordinator of the Federal Title Funds in the school system. An adult education program is a new addition to the curriculum, also headed by Mr. White.

MISS ADELE M. ONTKO and HAROLD J. LAYMAN

RUTH DAVIS, R.N.

Serving the senior high as school nurse and advisor to the FNA, Miss Davis has proven to be a "permanent fixture" at BHS. She is always willing to patch up the bumps and bruises at the senior high and the bloody noses at the junior high. She also supervises the hearing tests at the elementary schools.

Heading the guidance department at BJHS, Miss Gladys Evans has rendered many years of dependable service to the school system. Undertaking the all important task of guiding the junior high schoolers through three awkward years is a job from which most teachers shy away, for junior high problems require much patience

MISS GLADYS EVANS

Counsel and Care Given Freely

Clerks Minimize Monetary Madness

Bills have been an age old problem which almost every person despises. Matters are no different at BHS, and here to take care of them are Mrs. Geraldine Edwards and Mrs. Naomi Manion, who are responsible for everything from paper clips to school busses. Keeping the budget of the entire school system under control is a thankless job which is handled well by the competent clerks.

MRS. GERALDINE EDWARDS and MRS. NAOMI MANION, Clerks

School Directors Formulate Policies

The Brookfield Board of Education can easily be compared with the board of directors of any corporation. This select group sets up rules and regulations which are in turn interpreted by the administration. Dr. Albert Luchette, vice-president; Sam Ferrara, Joseph Goncz, president; James O'Brien, Jr., and Michael Kuzel are the members in charge of making school policies and seeing that they are enforced.

Secretaries' Positions Dependent upon Students

Efficiency and a great deal of patience are the vital characteristics of a good and capable secretary. Serving the junior high as secretary is Mrs. Ruth Brown. Mrs. Isabel Hall, who has faithfully served the superintendent for the past 12 years, also possesses these fine qualities. Colleen Frazier, a 1967 graduate of Brookfield High School, assists Mrs. Judy Burdette with the secretarial tasks in the high school principal's office

MRS. RUTH BROWN, Junior High Secretary

MRS. ISABEL HALL, Superintendent's Secretary

MRS. JUDY BURDETTE and MISS COLLEEN FRAZIER,
High School Principal's Secretaries

Custodians Do Thankless Duties

Keeping a modern school neat and clean takes much hard work. Sharing the responsibilities of keeping the halls of Brookfield High School clean are the custodians George Gahagan, Mrs. Agnes Lewis, and Lucien Marino.

Serving in similar capacities at the junior high school are Thomas Williams, George Esmond, Mrs. Jessie Durst, and Mrs. Anna Mishorich

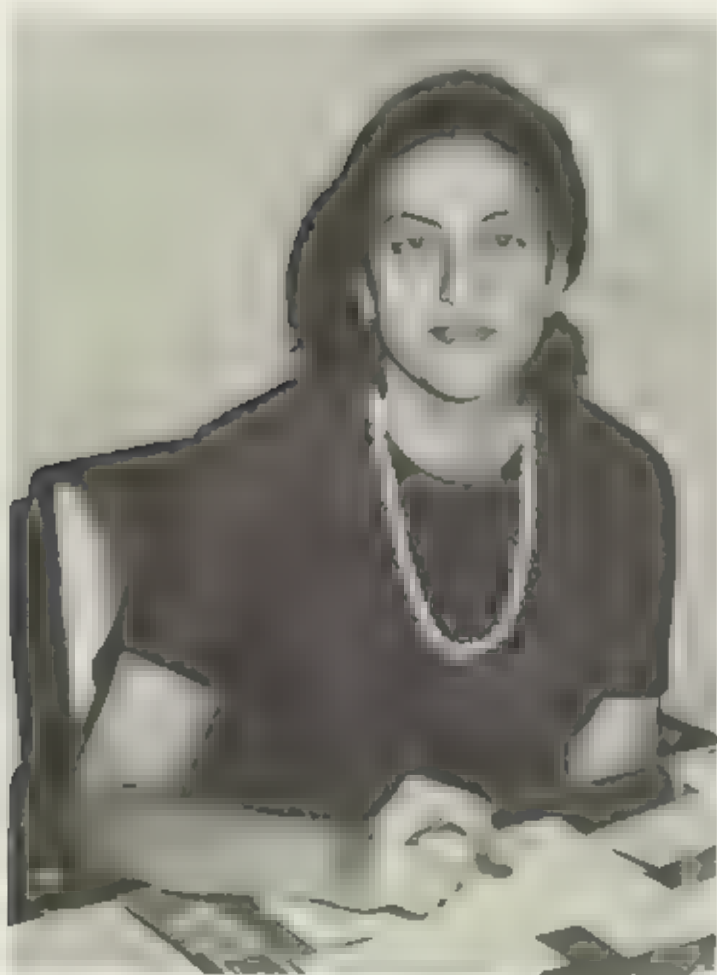

With the ringing of the fifth period bell comes the hectic start of lunch period. As 540 hungry teenagers pour into the cafeteria, hysteria sets in, and there is much hustling around the kitchen in order to meet the demands of the student body. The senior high cafeteria staff for the 1968-69 school year includes Mrs. Lena Marino, Mrs. Katherine Fonagy, Mrs. Betty Craig, and Mrs. Pauline Neral.

Dietitian Added to Food Service Personnel

Serving lunch to more than 700 junior high schoolers each day is the responsibility of Mrs. Mary Torok, Mrs. Genevieve Reagle, Mrs. Helene Reinhart, and Mrs. Mary Dellarco.

Type "A" lunches and the elementary school lunch program, featuring pre-packaged meals, are only two of the innovative programs unique to the food service offered through the Brookfield School System. Responsible for these achievements is Miss Barbara Botsaris, the school dietitian. Miss Botsaris is a native of Farrell and a former hospital food service employee.

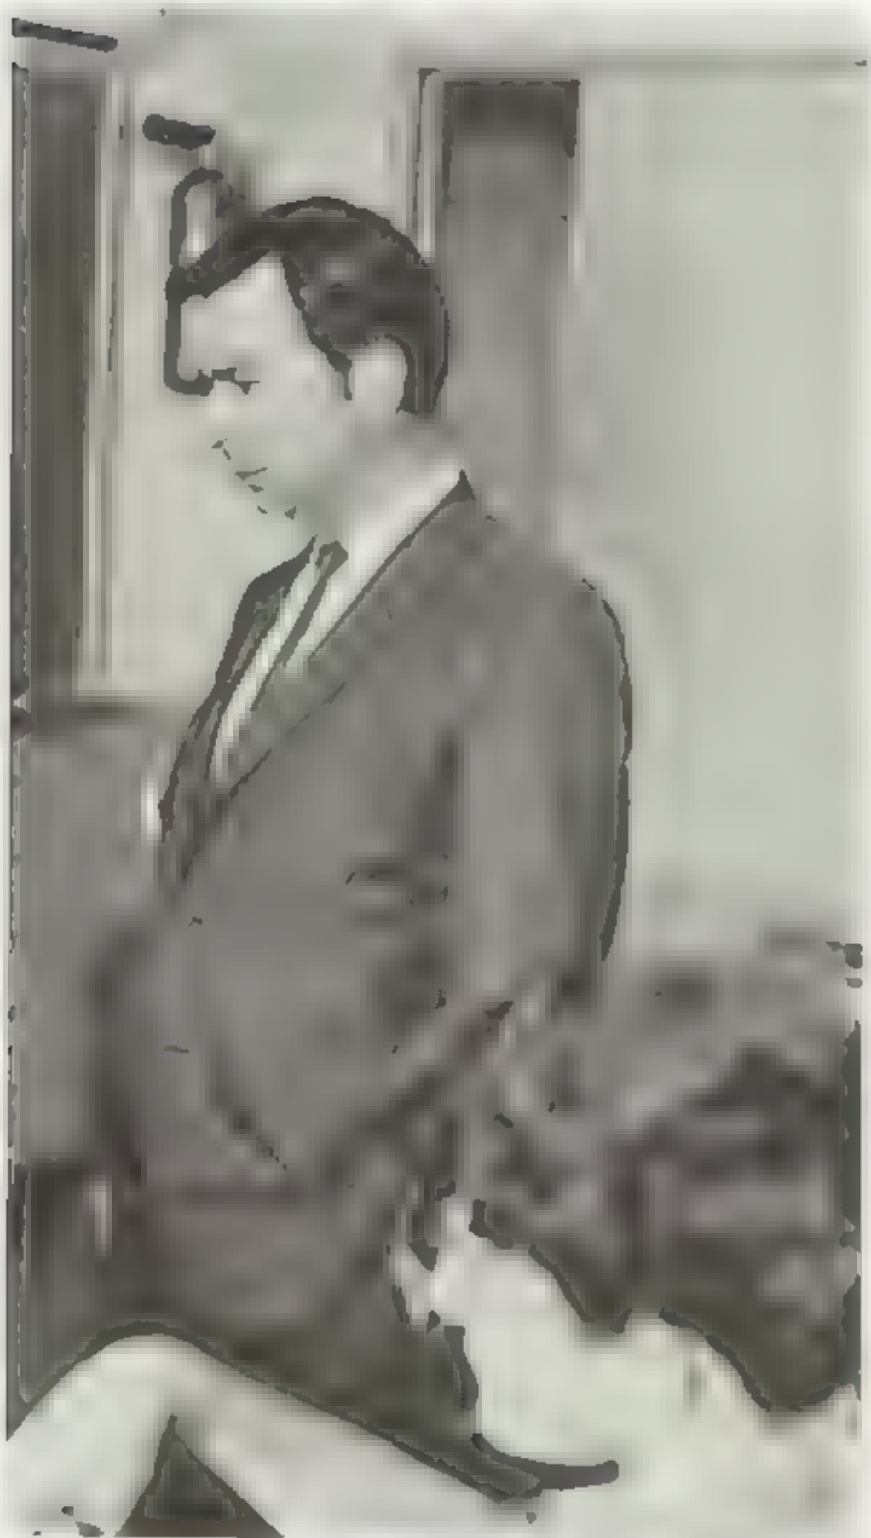

Transportation of the students to and from school is one of the primary functions of a smoothly operating school system. Credited for the fine job of seeing that the students arrive at their destinations safely are the bus drivers, who include Gene Delarco, John Roche, Mrs. Dorothy Bartek, John Peles, Verne Clark, Philip Stieb, and Albert Meeker.

Safety Consciousness, Patience Commendable

Also serving on the transportation staff are Isaac Worley, Charles Earnhart, William Schumacher, and George Economides.

BETTY JO KNIVAL, Advisor

Responsible for editing the paper are Kathy Lenarcic, John Warobiew, Donna Koch, Jane Nicastro, Larry Smolen, and Janice Jackson

Obtaining the interest of its readers in the high school as well as the junior high is the main objective of the Hilltopper Staff. The Hilltopper is circulated through the junior and senior highs once monthly and appears in the Sharon Herald once every six weeks. The year 1969 has proven to be the best ever for the Hilltopper.

Serving as reporters for this year's paper were Diane Toth, Barb Worley, Jean Talcot, Eugene Orynyoz, Kathy Mudrak, and June Talcot

Representing the Echo staff on Quill and Scroll are Tom Cary, Bill Hosick, Gary Catterson, Gaye Goodrick, Beth Frazier, Anne

Coston, Nancy Miller, John Drake, Karen Brown, Kathy Spencer, Love Mawaz, Jim Wandliss, Gary Steib, and Tom Marling.

Quill and Scroll Honors Journalistic Efforts

The Quill and Scroll is an honorary society composed of the senior members of both the Hilltopper and Echo staffs. This society recognizes high achievement in journalism and is formed solely for the purpose of uniting both staffs under one common interest—journalism.

The Beta Club is an organization consisting of sophomore, juniors, and seniors with a high scholastic standing in their classes. Hall monitoring and a tutoring service have been added as new activities adopted by the Beta Club. Mr. Richard Guerriero serves as advisor

Beta Club Initiates Monitoring, Tutoring

Councils Seek Better Relations

The junior and senior high Student Councils are select groups of representatives elected from each class with the sole purpose of lessening the student teacher relationship gap. Aside from the basic responsibilities, these groups also sponsored movies which serve as a break in the monotony of everyday school life.

The Spanish Club is planning a car wash and bake sale for the latter part of the school year. Mrs. Lois Stephens, new to the Brookfield school system, serves as the advisor to this club

Language Clubs Sponsor Various Activities

Sponsoring dances after basketball games and having bake sales are the primary activities underway for the French Club. The organization is headed by Mrs. Adeline Treftz.

Photo Club Provides Service for Publications

The Latin Club proves to be one of the most active clubs at BHS. An initiation and Christmas party headed this year's activities. The Latin Club boasts of an activity every month and the annual trip to the Buhl Planetarium. Pittsburgh Square dancing has also been initiated as a fund-raising activity. The advisor is Mrs. Treftz.

The Photography Club has at last become co-educational in opening its doors to the female sex. Its primary function is to instruct interested pupils in the production and development of pictures. The club is advised by Patrick Zanolli and has meetings monthly. Their primary money-raising activity is taking pictures of the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Preparing girls for a career in nursing under the assistance of Miss Ruth Davis and the Sharon General Hospital's Future Nurses Plan is the main goal of the Future Nurses Club. Nursing is a rewarding occupation and involves a great deal of time and patience. During membership in this club, one learns the chief factors regarding nursing

FNA, FHA Place Emphasis on Future

Learning the duties of a housewife is experience every girl should possess. An ideal format for home economics has been set up involving Future Homemakers of America. This club, which is supervised by Mrs. Edna Tsui, provides this valuable knowledge by sponsoring trips to department stores and holding lectures for its members

Teaching is the main objective in life for many students. The Future Teachers of America is a club which unites these students under this common interest. Experience for the members comes one day a year during which the students themselves take on the duties of being teachers at the junior high. This has always proven to be an unforgettable event for the F.T.A.

FTA Members Gain Practical Experience

Commercial Club Advocates Business Careers

Any student taking two or more commercial subjects is eligible for membership in the Commercial Club. This organization, under the direction of Mrs. Doris Davis, prepares its members for a career in the business world

Thespian Society Emphasizes Creativity

Perhaps one of the hardest working clubs at BHS is the Thespian Club. These students are the actors, actresses, and stage hands who participated in both the junior and senior class plays. Mr. Jack Arvin, speech and English teacher, serves as advisor of this industrious club

Just as the mailmen and fire fighters do our community a service, the Librarians (top) and the audio-visual assistants (left) are always willing to lend a hand here at BHS. By the use of these facilities, the faculty can make classes more interesting and informative to the students. Mrs. Martha Caswell supervises the librarians, and Milrod Lunich serves as audio-visual director

NHS Stresses Achievement

Being a member of National Honor Society is an honor as well as an achievement. Members are selected during a tapping ceremony in February. This society constitutes the upper 5% of the junior and senior classes and is advised by Mrs. Norma Kirsch. Each year a $200 scholarship is awarded to a senior

Sadie Hawkins

November 9 was the day that will not be long forgotten by the student body at BHS. Along with that date came the chance for a date with that guy you had been dying to date ever since September.

Provided Fun, Memories

The Sadie Hawkins Dance proved to be a really fun-filled event this year with the guys as well as the gals enjoying every minute of "The Sounds of Soul." The remaining bits of pumpkin and strewn pieces of hay served as lasting reminders of a wonderful night in Dogpatch, U.S.A.

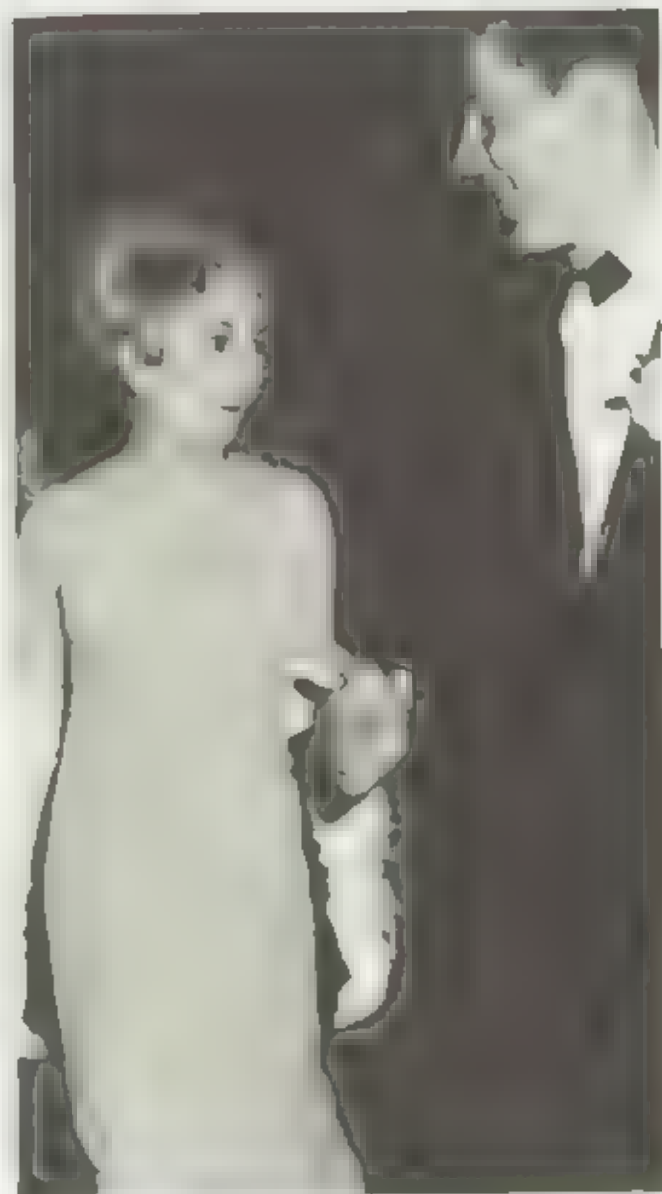

Before entering the 1968 prom, the juniors as well as the seniors never knew just how enchanting life under water could be. The gym had been transformed, by some mystical power, into a shimmering water wonderland which amazed all who attended the '68 prom. Bubbling lights and mounds of blue crepe paper illuminated the surroundings as the upperclassmen danced in Neptune's kingdom to the mellow sounds of Mike Roncone

'Look Homeward Angel' Smashing Success

'There must be something you can do.'

"My dear Madame Elizabeth, I have other fine angels."

JACK ARVIN, Director

"Look Homeward, Angel" was the play selected by Mr. Arvin for the senior class this year. The action centered around the Dixieland boarding house owned and operated by the Gant family. The characters as well as the mood of the play were skillfully portrayed by the talented members of the cast

The group (above) included front, J. Jackson, G. Catterson, T. Martino, P. Bodnovich, R. Wason, D. Bartholomew, and K. Herzberger; middle, L. Hayes, S. Kays, K. Brown, and D. Pasquerillo; back, B. Haig, G. Steib, M. Chalker, J. Nicastro, J. Papp, N. Couls, L. Smolen, and L. Jones

Comedy Reigned in "My Three Angels"

"Don't worry, Madame. Everything will work out all right."

On March 15 and 16, 1968, the curtain rose at Brookfield High School for the premiere of "My Three Angels." The play was presented as a comedy in three acts and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The "three angels" literally captured the hearts of the audience and after the final performance had ended, the cast was confident of a job well done.

The 1968-1969 marching band season proved to be one of the most hard working for the BHS squad of bandsmen. With football came marching season, and coming off the field dripping wet seemed to be an every-game ritual. Directed by Robert Furney, alias "The Boss," the band proved to have a very successful and rewarding year

Graduation, 1968 — Both Sad and Happy

Perhaps the most emotional experience through which one goes during a lifetime is graduation. The most common-felt of emotions is joy, which is expressed by all with either tears or laughter. ## A TOAST TO THE CLASS OF 1969!

. . . in fact, a toast to the 60's! Don't believe the prophets of doom and gloom . . . the world is getting BETTER all the time! Healthier! Better educated! More aware of man's inhumanity to man and, therefore, more aware of man's responsibility to man. More sensitive to cruelty. More determined to right wrongs. It's up to you to carry on the tradition!

In Appreciation

For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven. The time and season have passed. It is now time to look back and remember the good times. We, the members of the 1969 Echo Staff, hope that we have been able to capture the "good times" and that they will long linger in your memories.

We would not have been able to bring you the memories that we did, however, if it were not for the help and cooperation of the administration and the faculty. For the invaluable assistance of Jack Morie of Rembrandt Studio and John Warobiew, the understanding and patience of the Taylor Publishing Company, to the many patrons and advertisers, without whose support this book would not have been possible; to you, the subscriber—

To all, we wish to extend a very sincere and heartfelt thank you.
